ACB 2002 Convention

Hosted by City of Fairfax Band

April 25-28, 2002 Fairfax, Virginia

About the Convention-
The Association of Concert Bands is a non profit organization made up of individuals and all of their community bands dedicated to fostering the community band movement and the performance of quality band literature. ACB acts as a clearing house for information related to the development, funding, maintenance and promotion of bands through its publications, ADVANCE magazine and HONOR newsletter and its annual conference.

Members receive information on a variety of topics from conductors, arrangers, teachers, professionals, instrument manufacturers, and government agencies through articles, exhibits and discussions. Performing groups from around the country will have an opportunity to perform during the concerts.

The 2002 convention is hosted by the City of Fairfax Band, April 25-28, 2002 (NOTE: General programming begins on April 25).

For more information, check out the ACB web site at <http://www.acbands.org>.
